Први помен Смедерева налазимо године 1019. у повељи византијског цара Василија II, када је успостављена епископија новостворене Охридске архиепископије.

Град Смедерево налази се у североисточном делу Републике Србије, на другој по величини европској реци Дунаву. Укупна површина града Смедерева износи 481,7км². Смедерево је стратешки најповољнија географско саобраћајна локација, јер поседује најсевернију луку, која може да прими црноморске бродове. У оквиру своје општине има 27 насеља са приближно 230 000 становника.

У културном погледу, Смедерево организује и приређује многе манифестације, међу којима су најзначајније Нушићеви дани, у славу великог српског комедиографа, ликовну колонију Графика, Бијенале ликовних и примењених уметности, међународни песнички фестивал Смедеревска џесничка јесен, интернационалне фестивале Саксофонџада, Дани хармонике и Тврђава џеаџар, и многе друге. У Смедереву постоји позориште, библиотека, музеј и у оквиру његове делатности постоји Галерија за ликовну уметност. Такође, постоји Клуб ликовних стваралаца, Балетски студио, Градски женски и дечији хор, и етно групе Ђурђевак, Корени, и Горунке и друге, међу којима и фото клуб.

Од најпознатијих најстаријих историјских споменика културе су Црква Успења пресвете Богородице на старом гробљу из 15. века, као и Смедеревска тврђава, саграђена 1430. године, где се и данас одржавају многи песнички и позоришни фестивали међународног карактера.

The first mention of the city by the name of Smederevo is found in the year of 1019, in a Charter of The Byzantine Emperor Vasilius 2nd as the Archiepiscopacy of Ohrid was settled.

Smederevo is situated in the northeastern part of the Republic of Serbia, on the second largest European river Danube. The total surface area of the City of Smederevo is 481.7 km². The most important and exceptionally favourable natural advantage of Smederevo, in comparison to other neighbour cities, but also to others in Danubian Region, is actually the strategically most convenient geographical – traffic location, since it possesses the northernmost port, which can host the Black Sea ships. The territory of the City of Smederevo consists of 27 settled areas which are its integral parts.

In cultural sense, Smederevo is hosting many manifestations like Days of Nušić, to honor a great Serbian comedigraph Branislav Nušić, art colony Grafica, Biennale of visual and applied art, International festival Smederevo Autumn poet, International festivals Saksofonijada, International Castel Festival, Days of harmonics and others. The Cultural center of Smederevo is hosting among others: Art club, Balet studio, City choir and etno groups Ђурђевак, Koreni and Gorunke... It is also a home for Photo Club Smederevo.

One of the most important and the oldest monuments of Smederevo is the Church of the Assumption of the Virgin from the 15th century, as also the medieval Fortress of Smederevo built in 1430. The Fortress is currently used as a city park, and occasionally hosts festivals, concerts, fairs, and other cultural events.
